Tony Williams Exec Director, Operations, SAFEWORK NSW

FAIRTRADING and SAFEWORK NSW are undergoing a substantial transition to an integrated functional structure that will facilitate greater collaboration and innovation across the agencies, and will focus on delivering exemplary customer service to stakeholders such as builders and developers. Come and hear about what this means to the building industry, what you can expect to see as the changes take place, and how government services will be improved as a result. You will also hear about the role of the newly appointed Building Commissioner and his work with FAIR TRADING and SAFEWORK to improve confidence, quality and safety outcomes in the building industry.
